

The background of the entire image is a repeating geometric pattern. It consists of dark blue diamond shapes, each filled with a grid of small white dots. These diamonds are arranged in a staggered grid. Between the diamonds are smaller, four-pointed star shapes. Some of these stars are green with a red cross in the center, while others are orange with a green cross. The overall effect is a vibrant, traditional Indian textile pattern.

The background of the entire image is a repeating geometric pattern. It features a dark blue base with a grid of white dots. Overlaid on this are larger, stylized diamond shapes. Each diamond is composed of a central green square with a white cross, surrounded by an orange border, and further enclosed by a white zigzag line. The pattern is symmetrical and covers the entire surface.
