A great photograph is one that fully expresses what our brains see, despite everything that is being photographed.

A good photograph is one that fully expresses what one feels is the deepest sense about what is being photographed.

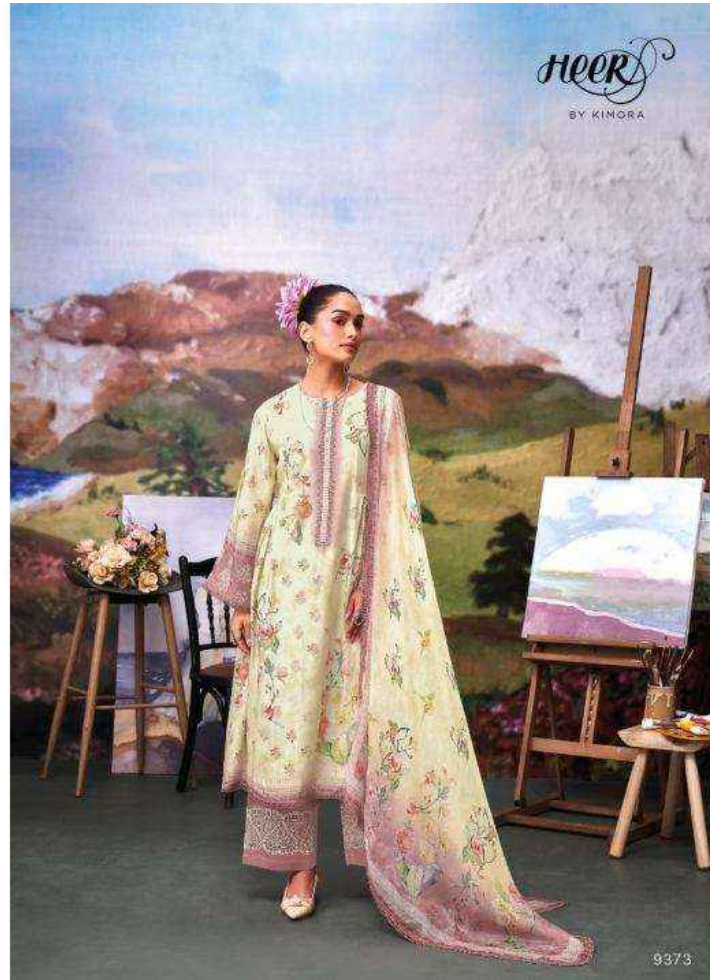

A good photograph is one that fully represents what was before the lens, in the best way possible, except what is being photographed.

A great photograph is one that tells a story, when the subject is the subject of the photograph.

A great photograph is one that tells experiences what one feels, in the deepest sense about what is being photographed.
